DRIED-APPLE PIES.

I loathe! abhor! detest! despise! Abeninate dried apple pies: I fike good bread, I like good meat, Or anything that's fit to eat: But of all poor grub beneath the skies. The poorest is dried-apple pies. Give me toothache or sore eyes In preference to such kind of pies.

The farmer takes his gnarliest fruit, Tis worms, bitter, and hard to boot; They leave the hulls to make us cough. And don't take half the peeling off. Then on a dirty cord they're strung,
And from some chamber window hung;
And there they serve a roost for flies
Until they're ready to make pies.
Tread on my corns, or tell me lies.
But don't pass me dried-apple pies.

The prevalent idea of the Sabbath is that you must not do something. I remember in my childhood at our house in Litchfield, how often upon the Sabbath I would see something to laugh at, and I would laugh.
"Henry," mother would say, (as good a woman as ever lived.) "Henry, you musn't laugh." "Why not?" "Because it is Sunday." And I would stand at the western window, with my brother Char-lie, and, watching the slowly declining sun, would nudge him and say, "Charlie, Sunday is most gone." And my mother would remark, "Henry, you ought not to wish that Sunday would be through." But I was glad when it was through; it hadn't made me in love with it. It was a restrictive day to me, a perpetual pruning day. Oh, that catechism that I couldn't learn, didn't learn, and can't say even now. Have you brought up your children so that they like the Sabbath? If you haven't so used the Sabbath day, then you have broken it When you come to church, don't look in as if you were going into a sepulchre. Don't pause solemnly, and go up the aisle with a disconsolate visage. Ah! if our Lord was a crowned despot, this would be right, but He is not; He is a God of Love, of mercy, of forgiveness. Men ought to be striving to make this day a more cheerful day, a pleasanter day than all the rest of the week.

The burden of Red Cloud's speech is summed up as follows: I don't want to fight.

The Great Father may be good and kind, but I don't see it. I don't want to see the white people making roads in our country. White people have sprinkled blood on the blades of grass about Fort Fetterman. My children and old men are dying off like sheep.

Mr. John Forsyth, editor of the Mobile Register, tells a story of having been in Washington in the spring of 1861, as one of the Confederate Commissioners who went to have an interview with President Lincoln. In the street he met Gen. Domingo coln. In the street he met Gen. Domingo Goicouria, who after shaking hands with him said, with his ever pleasent smile on his face, "There are no stranger set of people than you are in the whole world. In the South you are in arms against the Government of Washington, and yet I meet you, the representative of the insurrection, anietly walking about the principal street. quietly walking about the principal street of the capital of the country against which you are making war. CHOLERA MORBUS, PAINFUL PURGING, SUM-MER COMPLAINT, CRAMP AND COLIC. The want of a medicine of this character has long been felt by the community, and has induced the proprieters, by over thirty years' trial in private, to introduce it for the benefit of the public as a simple family medicine. It does not act as an astringent alone, but by reducing the acidity of the secreting membranes of of the bowels, reduces the inflammation, hence performs a thorough cure.

The proprietors take the liberty of stating to the public, that no more perfect receipt which is guaranteed for the cure of the above-mentioned diseases) exists in the world, being entirely tegetable and containing no the world, being entirely vegetable and containing no sugar of lead or other noxions drug or mineral. And they would further say that the preparation has met the learty approval of numerous physicians a use lake

DIRECTIONS: To adults, a tablespoonful after each passage, or four times a day; To children under ten, a half-table-poonful as required. To children under five a teaspoonful. To children under two or three, a half-teaspoonful, as required, and by carefully administering as directed it will never fail.

Hart's Magnolian Cough Drops

PRICE PER BOTTLE 25 CENTS.

This medicine can confidently be recommensately all diseases of the Throat, Bronehial Tubes and Langs. It is invaluable as a remedy for Conghs, Colds, Loss of Voice, Sore Throat, Influenza, Diptheria, Bronehicis, Hoarseness, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Spirting of Blood. It does not profess to cure consumption, but from the largely denuleent and balsamic character of the ingredients of which it is composed, it is claimed that it will do all for this dire disease that any tracah Medicine can do.

This medicine contains NO OPIUM, or other ingredient of a deleterious character, and may be given with the utmost confidence and safety in every stage of the disease and to patients of every age. Dose from ten drops to a teaspoonful, according to the age of the patient, and repeated in every instance as the urgency of the case requires, in one, two, three or four hours.

Damon's Stock Powders.

THESE POWDERS ARE PREPARED FROM Medicines which possess Laxative, Tonic and Purifying properties, and when administered to Horses produce the most beneficial results. As a laxative, they expel from the stomach and intestines all foreign substances. As a tonic they increase the tone and strength of the system; and as a purifier they clease the blood and lay the foundation for a strong and healthy circumstance. They are a preventive of Lung Fever, and an excellent remedy for all the discusses to which this noble animal is subject. Their use strengthens the lungs and gives a smooth and glossy appearance to the skin, and by increasing the appetite, give vigor and strength to the whole system.

Price, 25 cents per Box.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. For Lung Fever, or any symptoms of the disease, give a tablespoonful three times a day.

For Glanders, Heaves, Distemper, Founder, Coughs, and other complaints to which the Horse is subject, give a tablespoonful three times a day until a cure is effected—which is generally produced in a few days.

These powders, if used two or three times a week, during the spring and winter months, will prevent your horse from being attacked by these dangerons diseases and greatly increase their usefulness.

DAMON'S STOCK POWDERS FOR MILCH COWS. These Powders are valuable in increasing the quantity of Milk in the Cow, and should be used by every farmer. It increases the appetite and fattens and strengthens the animal, and while increasing the quantity of the milk, makes the butter firm and sweet.
